A MARTYR FOR MONEY.

The Salt Lake Chronicle notices the arrival in that city of a man who had pulled a hand-cart all the way from St. Louis to that city. His cart was filled with worthless trinkets which he was selling to a gaping crowd on the street at fabulous prices, while relating the thrilling adventures encountered on his lonesome journey. No man ever pulled a hand-cart from St. Louis to Salt Lake from necessity. It is a silly device adopted for the sole purpose of making money—a questionable way of placing himself in a position to rob the unwary of their earnings without returning an equivalent therefor. A similar adventurer pushed a wheelbarrow from Chicago to San Francisco a few years ago, and made a fortune out of the gullible portion of the population of San Francisco for himself and several others who were in the job, within three days after his arrival in that city. He returned in the same way and made a bushel of money for himself and friends by exhibiting himself and famous wheelbarrow to admiring crowds in the East. He soon, however, sank into that deserved oblivion from which neither he nor any of his ilk should have ever been permitted to emerge. This Salt Lake individual is doubtless attempting the same game, but having failed to enlist the agents of the Associated Press in his cause his hourly movements are not chronicled.

A COMPARISON.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean says two State Governors have lately been heard from as to their respective States and parties—Governor Shorman, of Iowa, and Governor Hamilton, of Maryland. The former said in his speech at the campaign a week ago, and his statement stands unchallenged, that the Republican party, which has been in control of Iowa ever since 1856, could point not only to a State out of debt entirely but to the collection and disbursement of over $24,000,000 without the loss of a single dollar. No defalcation stains the record. A better exhibit could hardly be conceived. Not a flaw in it has been pointed out since the challenge flung down by Governor Sherman Hamilton on the contrary brings against the dominant Democracy of Maryland charges and specifications which stagger belief; yet they, too, stand unchallenged. Before the people come to vote for President in 1894 the full record of the two parties in State matters ought to be, and doubtless will be, ascertained and made familiar to the people Iowa and Maryland may be extremes, but they seem to suggest the contrasting tendencies of two parties.

The late Judge Black of Pennsylvania, in an interview which occurred last winter, said, in speaking of Republican Presidential candidates, "Edmunds has not a ghost of a show of being nominated in 1894. The man who looks to me the most probable Republican Presidential candidate is Senator Conger of Michigan. I have heard his name mentioned in a quiet way among prominent men. He has the elements of a leader. He is not an eloquent man, but he has stuff in him more than had Blaine and Garfield combined. His record, both private and public, is clean. Are you Republican? Then tie to Conger."

Under Republican rule in Iowa the collection of twenty-eight millions has been made without the loss of a single dollar. No other state has such a record, and no other state in the Union has such a low tax. Tax in Iowa under Republican rule has only averaged a trifle over two mills, and the state is absolutely free from debt.—Gov. Sherman at Independence.

In a long letter to the Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce at Astoria, President Villard states that the companies he represents cannot undertake the construction of a railroad from Portland to Astoria. He therefore announces that the project will be abandoned. This announcement will be a severe blow to the hopes of Astoria.

Bishop Ryan, of St. Louis, created a sensation at Baltimore last Sunday by declaring in his sermon that no Catholic priest could forgive a sin unless the sinner was penitent; the priest was only God's agent.

A Party of Union Pacific surveyors are engaged in making a survey from Bear Canon, Idaho, into the Yellowstone Park, and it is expected the Utah and Northern Pacific will be extended next season to the wonderland.

OUT OF POLITICS.

James G. Blaine Not a Candidate for President.

The Chicago Tribune's Washington special says: Ramsdell, who is known to be a special friend of Blaine's, makes the statement that Mr. Blaine is positively out of all Presidential estimates and is not and will not be a candidate. Ramsdell says: "As to the question as to Blaine's candidacy for the Presidency, he was absolutely impatient as to the suggestion. He has always said that he was never so happy and contented in his life, that he has no care in the world and that he never wanted to enter public life again. In view of the fact, which cannot be denied, namely, that Mr. Blaine has more friends than any public man in the country, he will not allow a delegate to be elected in his name, nor will he discuss the question of his candidacy. He is absolutely and truly a private citizen. I would be foolish to say that Blaine does no longer take an interest in public affairs and politics. He has not lost his faith in the Republican party, and he has been confident of its success next year. His peace of mind on this point has never for one moment been shaken. He simply thinks he is not the man and he does not give the subject of himself a thought. Mr. Blaine believes that the next Republican candidate for President should come from the West—Ohio, of course, not being any longer regarded as a Western State."

Beecher's San Francisco Lectures and Interviews

The New York Star editorially on Beecher's San Francisco lectures and interviews, says: "It is very easy for a well-fed preacher like Beecher to indulge in abstract formulas and canting generalities, but if Chinese competition affected the pulpit as it has affected various industries on the Pacific Coast, Beecher's economic platitudes would speedily give way before the stern logic of facts. The bread and water science of living makes a clever rhetorical phrase, but Beecher himself would not willingly descend to a dollar-a-day level, and the average American workman is not to be blamed for cultivating a disinclination of the same sort. Beecher is a man of extensive learning and experience. Perhaps he will consent to elucidate what the intelligence and ingenuity of no other Caucasian has yet discovered, namely, that magical science of living which a white American can raise a family at lower wages than a Chinaman can subsist upon. Let Beecher do this, and his lecture upon the subject will be a phenomenal success."

The Graphic says: "There are 500,000,000 Chinamen against our 50,000,000 people. Turn the former loose upon us, and what becomes of American labor? It would be a princely thing for capitalists, and it would be death to the workingman and the system which contemplates his elevation as a means of his own salvation. Our workmen do not have too good food or too much of it now, and the problem of how to live cheaply is not the sole purpose of life. Beecher is merciful to the future at the expense of millions of the present. He has lofty ideas as to the general mingling of the people some day that can never come, but he is as cold-blooded as a fish with respect to the workingmen and Republic of his own period."

Professor Sullivan's Grand Tour

Sullivan's grand tour of three continents commences October 1st, when he goes to Washington and Baltimore, and thence through the principal cities of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, thence to Louisville and St. Louis, where Sullivan will be pitted in the game of baseball against professional pitchers from St. Louis. He will go to Chicago and other cities in the South, then to Milwaukee, Minneapolis and St. Paul; from there to the principal places in Kansas, Nebraska, Nevada, Montana, Utah and California. On the return trip the cities in Michigan and northern New York along the borders of the great lakes will be visited. About March 1st Smith will take Sullivan to England, and in addition to the towns in England, it is probable that Glasgow and Edinburgh in Scotland, the principal cities in Ireland, and possibly Paris will be visited. These towns finished, Sullivan, under Smith's management, will probable visit Australia on another exhibition tour.

The "Times" on the Field Room.

The New York Times, referring to the statement that the Alta California, under the proposed purchase by a group of prominent Democrats, will support Justice Field for President, says: "There is not printer's ink enough on the Pacific Slope to float Stephen J. Field or any other California Democrat over the Rocky Mountains and into the Presidential candidacy. There are too many Democrats on this side of the Rockies who are more powerful and have got a better start."

Query: What are considered "Mitigating circumstances" in house-breaking?—Reno Gazette.

Well, open doors, nothing of value in the house, and nothing taken from the premises of greater value than the local editor's purse—something no sane man would accept as a gift.

OUR OWN TOWN.

A Stranger's Views of Reno, and His Letter to an Iowa Paper.

O. W. Booten, of Hamburg, Iowa, who was out here on a visit a few weeks ago, wrote back the following to the Hamburg (Iowa) Times:

RENO, NEVADA, Aug., 23, 1883.

EDITOR TIMES:—We arrived at this place and found our old time friend Jacob McKissick awaiting our arrival in the beautiful City of the Sierras.

Reno is 263 miles northeast from San Francisco, situated in the Truckee meadows. It is the junction of the Virginia and Truckee railroad, also on the main line of the Central Pacific. The meadows are about 15 miles long and 8 miles wide and are under a high state of cultivation.

Reno has an altitude of 4507 feet and although a railroad town, only a few years old, is destined to be the Capital of the State. It was named in honor of the fallen hero of South Mountain. It has a population of 5000 and is the county seat of Washoe county, with a Court House which cost $35,000. It is the golden gate to the West for all the State, and distributing point for a larger scope of trade than any place between Omaha and San Francisco.

Sierra Valley, the Honey Lake Region, Long Valley, Camp Bidwell and Goose Lake region, Surprise Valley, Indian Valley, Winnemucca Valley, the Pitt River country, Fort Warner and southwestern Oregon, all derive their supplies wholly or in part in wagons from this point. It is the healthiest place in the State and is settled with enterprising and wealthy people. Being surrounded by an agricultural region makes this one of the most desirable places to be found West. It has five churches, Congregational, Methodist, Episcopal, Baptist and Catholic and a young ladies seminary costing about $25,000. Carson is the Capitol of the State, but from what he could learn, led us to the belief that at a near future it would be moved to this place.

Here are the grounds of the State Agricultural Society and one of the finest mile tracks in the West. There is but one bank First National which stands head and shoulders above any bank in the State. It has two newspapers, the NEVADA STATE JOURNAL, daily, and the weekly Plunderer; and small factories, a steam fire department and a public library. The citizens have under contemplation a street railway which will be completed in the near future. The benevolent orders are well represented, the Masons and Odd Fellows meeting in halls of their own and each having a large membership.

There are a great number of hotels in this place. The railroad house taking the lead in size, but the Palace hotel takes the cake in the way of a good square meal.

There are numerous mines surrounding this place which are being worked on a paying basis.

The Nevada & Oregon railroad company has its road completed about 27 miles north from this point and will be completed through to Oregon about January 1884. This road will run through a part of Long Valley and near the large tract of land owned by Mr. McKissick which will add to the value very much as it will take the freight that is now carried in wagons to north western California and southern Oregon. The general offices are at Reno.

There is a splendid opportunity to start a woolen factory at this place; there being a building for sale or rent, in which the meat shipping company occupied some two years ago. Not only can a company find suitable buildings, but they can purchase a large amount of wool at this point than any point in the State. Train after train is loaded with wool from the large scope of country tributary to this point.

Mr. McKissick of Long Valley, is interested in the prospect and has place as well as our own and has some very valuable property here. He is director of the First National Bank. He has 8000 acres of the finest land in the State of California. It being situated 45 miles north of this point in Long Valley. Mr. Mc. or Uncle Jacob as he is more familiarly known there and here has also 10,500 head of sheep, 1600 head of cattle and about 200 head of horses, with hotels, store rooms and dwellings in most all the towns and villages in lower California and northern Nevada; notwithstanding he is 72 years old he has never employed the woman faith, nor does he require any assistance in attending to his business and if I am right I informed he will never take a partner.

The Difference.

A few years ago no newspaper in the State was considered worthy of patronage that did not furnish daily reports of the San Francisco Stock Exchange, and no banking firm could do business that did not furnish its customers with half-hour reports of the transactions of the Stock Exchange. To-day the Enterprise and Chronicle are the only papers in the State that pay any attention to the stock reports, and these papers publish the reports on the same principle, that the boy did in the grave yard—simply to keep up courage. The First National Bank of Reno, has discontinued the reports entirely, and but for this item the probabilities are the public never would have been aware of the fact, as there is not one person found in a month who takes interest enough in stock operations to inquire. This simply shows how easily people adapt themselves to circumstances and surroundings.

When stocks were booming the business man who was not fully posted on the stock market was looked upon as a slow coach, and the newspapers that failed to furnish daily quotations were hardly worthy of notice. But there has been a change since then. Men who have money to chance in mining operations prefer to invest it in a legitimate way and as a result stock gamblers and kid-gloved miners are forced to seek a livelihood in other pursuits, and the people as a whole are greatly benefited by the change.

Stocks.

Annexed are the quotations of stocks after the morning board yesterday:

Union, 4 35 b, 4 40 a, 4 40 s; Ophir, 3 1/2 b, 3 30 s, 3 30 s; Sierra Nevada, 3 80 b, 3 80 s; Mexican, 2 1/2 b, 2 55 a, 2 1/2 s; Savage, 1 1/2 b, 1 80 a, 1 85 s; Gould & Curry, 2 35 b, 2 45 s; Best & Belcher, 3 45 a, 3 40 b, 3 40 s; Chollar, 2 85 b, 2 90 s, 2 90 b; Potosi, 1 05 b, 1 10 a, 1 10 s; Hale & Norcross, 3 85 b, 3 90 s; Crown Point, 1 20 b; Alta, 1 15 b, 1 20 s; Yellow Jacket, 3 10 b; Belcher, 1 05 b; Justice, 35c b, 40c a, 40c s; Benton, 20c b, 25c a; Utah, 1 95 a; Alpha, 2 10 b, 2 20 a; Scorpion, 60c b; Andes, 60c b.

Mason Valley Fair.

The Walker River Agricultural Association is making grand preparations to have a first class Fair in the Valley next month. They have some fine stock in the Valley and also some very fast horses, and lovers of such will be well paid for attending. The ranchers of Mason Valley raise as fine vegetables as those of any valley in the State, and the exhibition of potatoes, cabbage, beets, onions, etc. will be a show worth looking at.

Returned to Stay.

S. L. Frazier and family arrived in Reno yesterday morning from Springfield, Missouri, en route to Susanville, with the view of taking up a permanent residence. Mr. Frazier came out about two years ago and remained in Honey Lake Valley a year, and becoming dissatisfied returned to his old home in Missouri. He remained there a year and then bid farewell to the old State and has returned to the sagebrush to spend the remainder of his days.

Pyramid.

Day before yesterday soft rock was encountered in the Pyramid Company's tunnel (the old J. & K.) and as a result much better headway is being made. Should the rock continue as at present the tunnel will reach the ledge by the 15th of next month. The drills are now breaking rock about as fast as it can be taken from the tunnel.

To Be Married.

The Bay papers report that Minister E. M. Daggett will be married at Oakland to a young lady from Seattle, on the 30th instant, and that they will sail for Honolulu on the same day.—Gazette.

The "Bay papers" report nothing of the kind. The item appeared in the Journal Tuesday morning, and no other paper on the Coast had previously mentioned the matter.

A Chicago Merchant's Experience.

After I had become almost skin and bone, with neither strength, appetite nor ambition left, and the doctors couldn't help me, two bottles of Parker's Ginger Tonic cured me completely. M. B. Westcott, Lamp Mfr., Chicago.

Will be Transferred.

Ben Franklin, the would be suicide, will be transferred from the Insane Asylum to the County Hospital. His mind is all right, but his throat is still in a very bad condition. He will probably be compelled to submit to a surgical operation before the wound will heal.

A TOTAL ECLIPSE

of all other medicines by Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" is approaching. Unrivalled in bilious disorders, impure blood, and consumption, which is a scrofulous disease of the lungs.

Wool Shipped.

Saturday E. Reinhardt & Co. shipped a car load of wool East. The shipments of wool from this station this season are said to exceed by several tons those of any previous year. The price of the article, however, in consequence of the reduction in the tariff, is less than heretofore—Silver State 17th.

Adjourned.

The Board of Equalization adjourned last evening until next Monday, having gone through with the regular routine of business. Next Monday any person who has not had an opportunity to be heard may present their grievances and obtain a hearing.

Swindlers and Their Victims—How Careless People Suffer in Health and Pocket.

Every streak of sunshine creates a shadow, and behind every truth crumbles its corresponding lie. Whosoever has not been in some way fooled and robbed by swindlers and their works has had better luck in life than most mortals. In fact the best witnesses to the value of a given article are the counterfeits and imitations which seek to share its success without possessing a fraction of its merit. Hence it goes without saying that BENSON'S CAPSINE POROUS PLASTERS Are pursued by a host of miserable and worthless imitators, eager to appropriate what they can of the fruits of its victories. These leeches commonly take the form of a cheap plaster.

Now, these harmless and worthless plasters would be detected in a minute if people were careful in reading and remembering names. But most persons merely glance at them, understand partially and forget instantly. What result? This: Desiring to buy BENSON'S CAPSINE PLASTER, their own carelessness enables some storekeeper or druggist, who cares more for five or ten cents additional profit than for the sweets of an approving conscience, to roll them up instead some cheap imitation with a similar name. The deceit often works, while the fraudulent plasters never do.

Don't permit yourself to be thus victimized for lack of a moment's care. BENSON'S CAPSINE PLASTERS have stood the test of science and experience and are the product of both. Examine the article, and satisfy yourself that the word CAPSINE is cut in it.
